

The Studio Portrait

Jennifer Lynn Hughes

Jennifer Lynn Hughes is a cowgirl from Louisiana who grew up on a farms in Georgia and Louisiana. She has plowed farmland with Belgians and mules, competed in Reining, Western Pleasure, Horsemanship, Trail, Western Riding, Halter, Showmanship and a variety of other events. She is the owner and trainer of How Many Licks “Rubi”, who is the one of the top 10 American Paint Horse Association PAC showhorses in the United States. Rubi’s sire is The Magic Image and her dam is Chocolate Tootsie. Rubi is double registered with the AQHA and APHA.

Ms. Hughes is also a model (<http://www.modelmayhem.com/859260>).

A photo of Ms. Hughes riding through the Bonanza Creek Movie Ranch in New Mexico will be on the January 2009 calendar. The Photographing The West photo workshop program is designed to give the participants the opportunity to photograph real cowboys and cowgirls, real working ranch locations and more. Join us.

This portrait was done in a studio setting with three flash units and a 35mm digital camera. The lighting diagram is below

